

FUSION AUSTRALIA is a not for profit youth and community organisation which has a deep and ongoing commitment to developing resilience in individuals and the community through local initiatives.

With over 30 years of hands-on experience caring for families from all walks of life, Fusion responds to the needs of families by providing training, support and community connection through its regular Families Course, Playgroups, Community Talks and Community Dinners.

Fusion is proud to be working with schools, churches, local, state and federal governments, community groups, welfare agencies, businesses and anyone who wants to contribute to society in a positive and healthy way.

FAMILIESCOURSE.COM

FUSION.ORG.AU

FAMILIES CORPORATE WORKSHOP
HELP BUILD
FAMILIES THAT
Thrive

A TWO-HOUR WORKSHOP TO EQUIP PARENTS IN
BALANCING A BUSY FAMILY AND WORKING LIFE

“You can always improve your skills as a parent. No one’s perfect. I think everyone should take time out to take a good look at themselves, to see what they need to work on, to give their child the best chance at life.”

- Participant

DISCOVER what children need most
BUILD warm family relationships where children feel loved and valued
LEARN ways to reduce the chaos and make discipline calm and effective... EVERYDAY!

Thousands of people have been impacted and inspired by the Families Course including corporations such as Mirvac, community organisations and schools around Australia, UK and Canada.

The Families Corporate Workshop is headed by Sallie Hammond, founder of Fusion’s Families Course. Sallie is a parenting educator, author and mum of four who has been supporting and training families for over 30 years. Sallie will be joined by her passionate team who have a lifetime of experience in education and family training.

Group size: Minimum 5, Maximum 25 participants

The proceeds go to supporting Fusion’s work with disadvantaged families throughout Australia.

CONTACT BELINDA WADE

0412 657 492 | belinda.wade@fusion.org.au